cc|document configurator

Simplified Approach Designing Document Layouts for Microsoft Dynamics NAV

HIGHLIGHTS

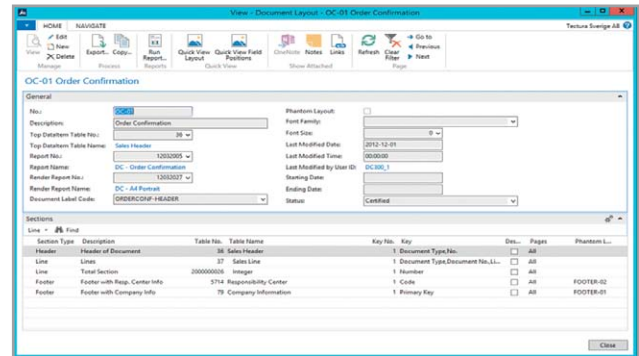

- ▶ Reduces implementation time and cost
- ▶ No programming skills required
- ▶ Design your documents without Visual Studio or the native report designer
- ▶ Support end users to take ownership of designing the printouts
- ▶ more than 20 ready to use 'out-of-the-box' documents
- ▶ Multilanguage support
- ▶ Company specific layouts
- ▶ Multiple layouts for a single document

Built on Microsoft Dynamics® NAV, the cc|document configurator simplifies the process of modifying Windows Clients and Web Clients printouts.

cc|document configurator takes the design work from the native report designer and Visual Studio and brings it into a setup environment in Microsoft Dynamics NAV. This allows customers and consultants to do modifications without any programming skills; but remains flexible enough for programmers to write special code through code units, if needed.

DOCUMENT LAYOUTS

Document Layouts inside Microsoft Dynamics NAV control the design of your printouts. Here you can define the sections on the printouts using a configuration containing tables, filters, fields, font types, variables, formulas, and more. Each printout can have multiple layouts that can be selected by the user when printing. Document Layouts can be imported and exported through XML files, which enables moving the configurations between different companies in Microsoft Dynamics NAV. Through the Phantom Document Layout feature, it is possible to configure common sections in a single place; like footers that are the same on different printouts.

AS A PART OF THE DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT PACK

Together with cc|formatted documents, the document configurator is capable to save and print more complex formatted text. Other NAV reports can be integrated as subreports in the printout. A word processing editor (WYSIWYG) is used to enter text with more mark-ups and even pictures. By “copy & paste” from Microsoft Word or websites, the formatting is conveyed to the editor. Pictures are embedded into the text and stored without the need of an extra repository.

Our commitment to finding the best solutions for our customers and to providing innovative features in order to optimise their business and bring them new levels of success is also reflected in our partnerships with Microsoft and QlikTech.
